Subject: Invitation for Guest Lecture on Differential Equations Modelling First Approach

Respected sir,

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of the Anant Mathematics Society, Department of Mathematics, PGDAV College (University of Delhi), we are pleased to extend an invitation to you to deliver an invited talk on 23 October, 2024 at 10:30 a.m. onwards in the college auditorium.

We believe that your expertise and insights in the field of mathematics, particularly differential equations, would greatly benefit our students and faculty. Your lecture would contribute to enhancing their understanding of the subject and inspire future explorations in mathematics. We look forward to your positive response and are excited about the opportunity to host you at P.G.D.A.V. College.

Thank you for considering our invitation.

Warm regards,

Krishna Sharma
