1. The Department of Economics expresses its gratitude and appreciation to Dr. Aruna Rao the services she has rendered during her tenure as Teacher-in-charge. In the filling of vacant posts through guest teachers, in the liaisoning with the office as well as the successful conduct of lectures and the flagship event BLISSPOINT, Dr. Aruna Rao has played a very important role. Thanks much.

2. After years of service, Dr. Aruna Rao is reaching her superannuation on the 30th of June 2024. We wish her all the best.

3. We extend our thanks to Dr. Sheebani Goswami for her tenure as Faculty Advisor to the Economics Association and effective co-ordination through the year.

4. We express thanks and gratitude to Prof. K Chandramani Singh, and later from March, to Prof. V Ravi for the support from the institution.

4. Our condolences to the bereaved parents of Cheistha Kochhar who was pursuing Ph D at London School of Economics on a fellowship who passed away following a tragedy. She was one of our illustrious alumni of the 2008-11 batch.

5. In principle, the Department approves the add-on course from GRMI in collaboration with the Department on DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION IN THE CHANGING CONTOURS OF GLOBAL BUSINESS. PFA the details of the proposed course. Other than the TiC, there has to be a full time co-ordinator. Dr. Sheebani Goswami has agreed.

6. Admission are soon to start to the college. Again through CUET scores. For general information, last time around the CUET cutoff under General was 740. Scores of Mathematics is compulsory. All colleagues are requested to co-operate with the admission process which is soon to start.

7. Result analysis through the SAMARTH portal though is possible is tedious, the college has written to the university section in this regard. We are awaiting the same. As of now, it has not been done.

8. I am sending to you as faculty members the names of all the students with email ids for your perusal (as known, please do not share outside our organisation). The list of the outgoing batch with emails is also included so that it could be used for alumni related activities and for post college performance assessment. The new students list will reach soon.

9. In an era where the marks under Internal Assessment and Continuous Assessment with attendance for lectures and tutorials constitute 70 of the 160 marks of the student, we ought to have a clear cut policy in this regard.

10. Efforts towards enhanced utilisation of the library resources. How to blend internal assessment with the library resources

11. On the basis of discussions, the work allocation of the AY 2024-25 (ODD SEMESTER) has been finalised. (relevant part here)

12. The TiC has already sent the proposal relating to workload to the Principal , and through his office to the Academic Planning Committee.

13. It was decided that the Department shall float a Google Form towards soliciting the opinion of students of the DSE to be floated in Semester V. In Semester II, however we go only for one.

14. At present we offer 3 batches of GE in Principles of Microeconomics in Semester I and 1 batch in Introductory Development Economics. We would like the same to continue, the department would like to communicate the same to the APC.

15. Brahma Reddy wanted to know whether there were any updates on the fourth year. As of date, there was no fourth year in the coming academic year.

16. On the basis of the list of departmental seniority, the position of Faculty Advisor was offered to Mr. Yogesh Malhotra. He expressed his unwillingness to take it up this year. Next, the same was offered to Dr. Sonakshi Jain, who agreed to be the same. The House approved the same. The current collection of Rs. 37200 was handed over to Dr. Sonakshi Jain. All of the above is pasted in the Department register.
